

Jonathan Mills is an active musician, composer, and educator currently based in Atlanta, GA. He attended Georgia State University and earned a Master of Music in Jazz Studies in 2015. Before that, Jonathan earned a degree in Music Education and Percussion Performance from Slippery Rock University in 2013. His primary instructors include Justin Varnes at GSU and Dr. David Glover at SRU.

Jonathan leads his own band which focuses on original compositions and arrangements. His compositions primarily draw from the jazz tradition, with influences of funk, rock, folk, and some world music.